

Hello fellow ponders,

I apologize for the format of the newsletter but my computer is giving me trouble. Regardless, below is the information for this month.

September speaker

Kevin Wintringer, of Pond Nets in Orchard Park, NY will be our speaker for September. We will be raffling off a 10 X12 leaf net that he's donating to the club. Please check out his website to see what he's all about. <http://www.pondnets.com>

Fair Pond Thank You

The Fair is over for another year. The fair is a chance to educate the public on fish and water gardening. For three hours of volunteering you get two tickets and a parking pass for the fair. The Club would like to thank the following members who took time from their busy schedule to represent the Club at the fair this year. Bev and Nate Jarmuz, Bill and Sophia Wroblewski, Carol and Paul Krajewski, Jan Evert, Renae Johnson, Jack Mullen, Nancy Wojnowski and especially Chris and Dennis Wilkolaski who helped with set up, taking down and filling many time slots.

Ground cover available

Ed McKee has Periwinkle, a ground cover, available in large quantity; call if you would like some (716) 876-0210

Art Show

Our very own NFKPC member, Mary McKee will be showing her original art work at two upcoming shows.

1. 308 Art Festival - Admission is FREE

The 308 Art Festival will be held on Saturday, September 17 from Noon – 5pm

Oliver St between Schenck St and Robinson Rd in North Tonawanda. Mary will feature original paintings for under $100
<http://www.project308gallery.com/upcoming-exhibitions.html>

2. 640 Gallery

September 26 – October 17, 2016

Mary McKee's original art will be on display Mon – Fri 10am – 4pm at 640 Gallery 640 Ridge Rd in Lackawanna, NY.

Meet Mary at 640 Gallery for her opening reception, Sept 30 from 6-8pm.

Refreshments

Nancy Wojnowski will be providing our refreshments for September.